

I were to identify the most important issues to business in the Northland I would say the following.

1. Unfunded health benefit exposure for the City of Duluth.
2. Population growth both young and old. We need to encourage it and provide the amenities and jobs to bring it here
3. Lack of leadership in providing a vision for the future and moving forward to accomplish it.

Thanks for the opportunity.